

FULL TIME SPANISH TEACHER (Grades 4-12)
or FULL TIME FRENCH TEACHER (Grades 8-12)

Woodstock Day School is a progressive, independent day school located on a breathtaking 40-acre campus in the Catskill Mountains. Our mission is to provide a socially and environmentally mindful education from Nursery School - 12th Grade, valuing each student as an individual and as a member of the community. We have a position for a full time Spanish or French teacher for the 2018-2019 school year.

Position Description:

Woodstock Day School (WDS) maintains an end-to-end Spanish program, Nursery - 12th Grade, and the option to study French in Upper School (7 - 12th Grade). This position calls for teaching across divisions, serving as an advisor in the Upper School, and other day-to-day responsibilities as determined by the Leadership Team.

Requirements:

Bachelor's Degree and fluency in the language are required, Master's Degree preferred. The ideal candidate will have a minimum of three years' experience teaching Spanish or French, a hands-on, project-based approach to teaching a second language, and enthusiasm for joining a small, dedicated, collaborative community of educators and learners. Experience with middle school a plus.

Woodstock Day School's goal is to achieve and maintain equal employment opportunities. It is also the policy of WDS to maintain an environment free from discrimination. The goal of WDS is to hire an outstanding and diverse faculty and staff who work together toward the common mission.
